

Albert R. Atkinson, Jr., American Legion Post 210
Doylestown, Pennsylvania 18901

Meeting Minutes
December 15, 2014

Commander Jack Strollo called the meeting to order at 1930 hours.

The minutes of the December 01, 2014 meeting were read and approved.

The Finance Officer reported $ [REDACTED] in the main account; $ [REDACTED] in the home association account; and $ [REDACTED] in the Trust account.

One guest was present – Dan Gordon, a Life scout from Troop 59. He proposed his Eagle Scout project to landscape and clean-up the back area of the Legion.

Service Officer – No report.

Sick Call – Jerry Fox said that Jack Jameson fell. Members should give Jack a call at 215-348-8807.

Membership – Ed O'Dwyer reported that we have 211 members and are short 42.

Home Association – Have a birthday party scheduled for Dec 27. Every Monday from 11 to 4 there is a card party rental. Also have Keller Williams and a band concert as a rental.

Flag Committee – Nothing to report

Scholarship Committee – No report

Correspondence – Nothing to report

Upcoming Events – Nothing to report

Old & Unfinished Business

Vote for George Shaffer in the Eiseman contest that gives a deserving family a free roof.

We had a good turnout for the Neshaminy Retirement Center Christmas visit. Thirty vets were visited.

We had several Legionnaires at the Vietnam Veterans Christmas tree decorating event.

The Daily Intelligencer did an article about our Dec 7 World War II event, held at the Legion hall.

New Business

Navy beat Army 13 years in a row.

A discussion was held concerning meeting at Pine Run Retirement Center.

Dec. 29 – staff meeting at 1900 hours, Post officers should attend.

A certificate of appreciation will be given to Andy Webster for mowing grass and taking care of Legion grounds.

The Good of the Legion was won by Hugh Dethorn.

16 members were in attendance.

Submitted by

Jerry Ewers and

Rick Gaver
Post 210 Adjutant